WALT: join sentences

Today, we are going to practice joining sentences together using conjunctions.

I will give you three words and you need to write a sentence that includes all three words.

For example:

snow because tree

My sentence would be:

I got covered in snow because Huxley shook the tree.

Here are some for you to try:

ice

because

banana

shark

because

jelly

stag beetle

because

table

ice-cream

when

frog

homework

jellyfish

trainers

bed

cake

if

tortoise

crown

if

socks
